

Meet Dr. Patti Talbot – Speaker, Author, Change Educator

Patti's signature system, the Changemaker Journey Framework, can be applied across sectors and contexts to help families, communities, schools, and businesses cultivate homegrown change and create the world we all want to live in.

She holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Elementary Education, a Master of Arts degree in Pupil Personnel Services, and a Doctor of Education degree in Educational Leadership. Her research interest lies primarily in the areas of leadership for global education and changemaker education, and she's passionately committed to doing her part to realize the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals.

By focusing on the four quadrants of the Changemaker Journey Framework—being, doing, connecting and reflecting—Patti helps leaders and future leaders develop the characteristics needed to live their highest calling. She welcomes opportunities to speak with your group about the CHANGEMAKING POWER OF THE FEMININE COLLECTIVE!

The Changemaking Power of the Feminine Collective

You don't have to be a hero to be a changemaker. But we can't change the world unless we know the path we must take to get it done. The capacity, the courage, and the strength are within us, but how do we unleash them for the benefit of all?

Women have what it takes to rise up and work together to create change. Yet many of us suffer from impostor syndrome and crises of confidence that make us vulnerable to inaction.

The real power comes from all of us working together, giving each other the courage we need to take action. When we gather our resources and refocus our talents, we can do it! By acting in collaboration with other committed women and walking the changemaker's journey together, everyday people can create extraordinary change.
